My dear Kesaviengar.

Law Minister) Yes 23/10

We have just heard from Mr. Latham, the A.R.P. Officer at Madras, that he has two vacancies for candidates to be trained as Class-III Instructors at the special course starting at Madras from 27th October and lasting for a fortnight.

This is being Expd Separately

In my letter forwarding the draft A.R.P. Scheme for Bangalore City, I have stressed the need for training three Class-III Instructors without delay. Otherwise we can make little progress.

I have already arranged for the selection of two suitable Sub Inspectors, and to enable me to wire to Mr. Latham to reserve the two vacancies, I shall be grateful if you will kindly communicate the sanction of Government with the least possible delay. Details regarding allowances etc. can be settled later.

For favour of Confirmation.

My dear Kesaviengar,

Y Please refer to your official letter No.932/W dated 24-10-1941, conveying sanction to the deputation of two Sub Inspectors to be trained as Class III Instructors at the A.R.P. School at Madras.

As already explained by Mr. Madhava Rao, we shall require at least five Class III Instructors for the training of A.R.P. volunteers. A course for Class III Instructors starts at Bombay on the 1st December, and we have been offered two vacancies for our nominees. I am therefore arranging, as verbally agreed to by you at the Civil Service Association Meeting, to send two more selected Sub Inspectors to that course.

An official request for the formal sanction of Government follows.
